Conditions for Remission of Tax

An individual who bought a piece of land to construct a house for subsequent owner-occupation may claim this remission if:

1. The land is not occupied;
2. No rent or fee is charged or received for the occupation or use of the land or any part thereof;
3. The owner-occupier concession is not granted on any other property;
4. The new dwelling house will be owner-occupied for at least one year following the date of issue of the TOP or CSC, whichever is the earlier;
5. The Annual Value of the land parcel is less than $90,260; and
6. This application is submitted not later than 30 days after the TOP date or CSC of the newly completed house.

The period of remission shall be from the date of submission of building plans to the Building Authority to the date of issue of the TOP or CSC, whichever is earlier, subject to a maximum period of two years.
