

FAQs – Claim for Child Relief & Parenthood Tax Rebate

Q1. What is this "Claim/ Revise Child Relief & PTR" digital service?

- A1. Parents of a new born child can enjoy tax savings if they are eligible for Qualifying Child Relief (QCR) & Parenthood Tax Rebate (PTR). Conditions apply. QCR and PTR can be shared with your spouse in any proportion. For convenience, we will allocate the QCR & PTR equally (i.e. 50% each) between you and your spouse. If both you and your spouse are agreeable, no action is needed from you and the QCR and PTR will be pre-filled in your future Income Tax Returns, subject to eligibility. However, if you and your spouse do not agree with the 50:50 basis, you and your spouse will need to e-submit your revised allocation basis for QCR & PTR via this digital service.

This digital service is a convenient and secure communication channel to submit your reply online. You will receive an acknowledgement upon successful transmission.

If we do not receive a reply by the due date or the revised allocations between you and your spouse do not add to 100%, we will apportion the QCR and PTR equally between you and your spouse.

Working mothers may also be eligible for Working Mother's Child Relief (WMCR). Conditions apply. Working mothers need not claim WMCR in their tax returns as the relief will be automatically allowed to eligible working mothers.

Q2. How do I submit my reply via this e-Service?

- A2. Log in to myTax Portal. Click on "Individuals" > "Submit Requested Information" and select "Claim/ Revise Child Relief & PTR".

You need SingPass 2-Step Verification (SingPass 2FA) to log in to myTax Portal.

Q3. What should I do if I encounter errors when using the e-Service?

- A3. Follow the instructions on the screen. If the error persists, please email us via myTax Mail with the following information to enable us to look into the matter:
- Date and time that you encountered the problem;
 - Description of the problem;
 - The operating system you are using (e.g. Windows 10, Macintosh OS, etc);
 - The browser type and version number (e.g. Internet Explorer 11, Firefox 2.0, etc);
 - Device used (mobile phone or desktop); and
 - Full Screenshot of the error message encountered.

Q4. Do I have to reply even if I wish to maintain my claim of 50%?

- A4. As we have allocated the claim for QCR and PTR equally between you and your spouse, you need not reply if you agree with the 50% apportionment.

Q5. Can I view/change the replies submitted by my spouse/ex-spouse?

FAQs – Claim for Child Relief & Parenthood Tax Rebate

A5. No. Please discuss with your spouse/ex-spouse and agree on the basis of sharing before submitting your reply.

Q6. How will the relief be allowed if my spouse and I cannot agree on the apportionment or do not reply?

A6. The relief/rebate will be apportioned and allowed equally.

Q7. How do I enter my revised claim?

A7. Please follow the instructions on the screen. Update your sharing basis in percentage under 'My Share of Child Relief' and/or "My Share of PTR" accordingly.

Q15. Do I still have to make my claim for QCR and PTR during e-Filing next year if I have received this letter?

A15. No, your claim for QCR will be prefilled. You can log in to myTax Portal to view your PTR amount under “Transfer Parenthood Tax Rebate (PTR)” digital service

Q16. Can I use my mobile phone to access the digital service?

A16. Yes.

Q17. I am separated/divorced and I am not on talking terms with my spouse/ex-spouse. Can I change the basis of apportionment? What happens if my spouse/ex-spouse did not reply?

A17. Yes, you can change the apportionment. However, in the event that the revised allocations between you and your spouse do not add up to 100%, we will apportion the QCR and PTR equally between you and your spouse.

Q18. Can I request for extension of the due date as my spouse is overseas?

A18. You are required to reply by the due date. Any request for extension of time to reply will be considered on a case by case basis. Please call us at 1800 356 8300 or email us with your request via myTax Mail with the reasons for requesting an extension

Q19. If I wish to claim handicapped child relief, what should I do?

A19. Please log in to the digital service to change the type of child relief to handicapped child relief and attach the completed 'Application for Claim of Handicapped-Related Tax Reliefs' form. You can still submit the reply without attaching the documents and submit the documents later via the digital service or myTax Mail. If the documents are not received by the due date, we will allow Qualifying Child Relief instead of Handicapped Child Relief.

Q20. Can I still change the basis of apportionment after the due date?

A20. You can either email us or amend QCR amount during tax filing season next year. However, for PTR, you/your spouse can transfer the PTR amount to each other via the 'Transfer Parenthood Tax Rebate (PTR)' digital service.
