IRAS e-Tax Guide

Corporate Income Tax –
Objection and Appeal Process
(Second Edition)
1 Aim

1.1 This e-Tax Guide sets out the administrative aspects of to the Objection and Appeal Process and provides guidance to taxpayers on filing a valid objection.

1.2 The scope of the Objection and Appeal Process covers all assessments raised by the Comptroller of Income Tax (CIT), except for assessments raised based on Estimated Chargeable Income (ECI) submitted by the taxpayer.

2 At a Glance

2.1 To expedite the finalisation of taxpayers’ corporate income tax matters, IRAS has implemented changes to the administrative procedures with effect from 1 January 2014. The changes are summarised in the table below.

3 Overview of the Objection and Appeal Process

3.1 The CIT is empowered under the Income Tax Act to raise assessments based on the information furnished by taxpayers or in the absence of information, to the best of his judgment. Thus, it is inevitable that the taxpayer may not agree with the CIT’s adjustments.

3.2 If a taxpayer does not agree with an assessment raised by the CIT, a Notice of Objection must be filed with the CIT pursuant to Section 76(2) of the Income Tax Act.

3.3 The Objection and Appeal Process comprises four stages (Objection, Review, Litigation and Finalisation) as depicted in the flow chart below. To expedite the resolution of objections, changes were implemented in the Objection and Appeal Process with effect from 1 January 2014. The process and changes are elaborated in the following sections.

Objection and Appeal Process

- CIT issues a Notice of Assessment (NOA)
  - Taxpayer reviews NOA and disagrees with assessment
  - Taxpayer files a Notice of Objection within the stipulated deadline and provides precise grounds of objection
  - CIT reviews information & issues a decision
  - CIT disagrees with taxpayer (no resolution)
  - CIT issues a Notice of Refusal to Amend. Taxpayer may then appeal to the Income Tax Board of Review (ITBR)/ High Court/ Court of Appeal
  - CIT revises assessment to incorporate taxpayer’s tax adjustments (end)
  - CIT’s assessment is final and conclusive (end)
  - Final judgment in taxpayer’s favour
  - Final judgment in CIT’s favour
  - CIT revises assessment (end)
  - CIT revises assessment to incorporate taxpayer’s tax adjustments (end)
  - CIT’s assessment is final and conclusive (end)
  - Final judgment in taxpayer’s favour
  - Final judgment in CIT’s favour
  - CIT revises assessment (end)

- Finalisation

- Review

- Litigation

- Objection
4 Objection Stage

4.1 The CIT Issues a Notice of Assessment (NOA)

4.1.1 The CIT will ascertain the amount of chargeable income based on the taxpayer’s Income Tax Return, audited/certified accounts, supporting schedules and information furnished. Thereafter, a NOA will be issued to the taxpayer. This may be accompanied by a letter or a tax computation from the CIT to explain the tax adjustments made.

4.2 Right to Object to an Amended Assessment

4.2.1 Pursuant to Section 76(2A) of the Income Tax Act, a taxpayer’s right to object to an amended assessment is limited to the amendment or any matter relating to the amendment. In other words, for items which have been finalised in previous assessment(s) to which no valid objection was filed, they cannot be re-visited.

4.2.2 Example - An additional assessment was raised on a taxpayer to disallow the tax deduction on exchange loss (reflected in the Notice of Additional Assessment dated 31/3/2017). At the same time, the CIT issued a query letter requesting details on retrenchment expenses. The taxpayer did not file an objection against the Notice of Additional Assessment dated 31/3/2017. Upon review of the taxpayer’s reply, the CIT subsequently revised the assessment to disallow the tax deduction on retrenchment expenses (reflected in the Notice of Additional Assessment dated 30/09/2018). The taxpayer now wants to file an objection against the disallowance of tax deductions on both the exchange loss and retrenchment expenses.

4.2.3 As the taxpayer did not object to the disallowance of exchange loss previously, this item is treated as finalised. The taxpayer is not allowed to file an objection against this tax adjustment. However, the taxpayer will be able to file an objection against the disallowance of the retrenchment expenses by 30/11/2018 since this is a new tax adjustment introduced by the CIT in the Notice of Additional Assessment dated 30/09/2018.

4.3 Deadline to File a Notice of Objection

4.3.1 Pursuant to Section 76(3) of the Income Tax Act, if a taxpayer does not agree with the assessment, a Notice of Objection in writing must be filed within 2 months from the date of service of NOA\(^5\), if the NOA is issued

\(^5\) Generally, the NOA is post-dated 7 days. The date of service of NOA is the date shown on the NOA even though it is received earlier than the date stated on the NOA.
Corporate Income Tax – Objection and Appeal Process

on or after 1 January 2014\(^6\). The Notice of Objection must contain precise grounds of objection\(^7\). Otherwise, it will be regarded as invalid.

4.3.2 Example - a NOA is issued to the taxpayer on 6/6/2018. The taxpayer has up to 6/8/2018 to file a Notice of Objection to the CIT.

4.3.3 If a taxpayer requires more time to provide the details for the basis of an objection, the CIT is prepared to extend the 2-month deadline on a case-by-case basis. A written request must be forwarded to the CIT within 2 months from the date of service of NOA.

4.4 Filing the Objection

4.4.1 Electronic Objection - Taxpayers are strongly encouraged to submit the Notice of Objection through IRAS’ e-Services. The submission can be done electronically by logging into myTax Portal and selecting “Revise/ Object to Assessment”.

4.4.2 Objection Form - Alternatively, taxpayers may submit the Objection Form to file a Notice of Objection. The Objection Form includes a checklist to ascertain if the objection to be filed is valid or otherwise. A softcopy of the Objection Form is available at IRAS’ website. Please refer to Annex A for a specimen of the Objection Form.

4.4.3 If a taxpayer prefers to file the Notice of Objection via a letter or an email, the CIT is prepared to accept it provided precise grounds of objection are stated.

4.5 Guidelines on Precise Grounds of Objection

4.5.1 A Notice of Objection must state precisely the grounds of objection to be valid. As a guide, it must contain the following details:

- a. Year of Assessment;
- b. Description of the item(s) under objection\(^8\);
- c. Amount of income/ deduction for each item under objection; and
- d. Reason explaining why deduction/ allowance/ relief ought to be allowed/ or the income should not be subject to tax.

To expedite the review process and bring about early finalisation of the assessments, taxpayers are strongly encouraged to submit the following together with their Notice of Objection:

\(^6\) For NOAs issued before 1 January 2014, the Notice of Objection in writing was to be filed within 30 days from the date of service of NOA.

\(^7\) Refer to paragraph 4.5

\(^8\) To use description stated in the audited accounts/ tax computation/ Income Tax Return, where possible.
e. Proposed tax adjustments, preferably with a revised income tax computation;
f. Supporting information/documents such as those listed in Annex B.

4.5.2 The CIT will regard a Notice of Objection to be without precise grounds if the details as stated in paragraph 4.5.1(a) to (d) are not provided. Examples of invalid objections are as follows:

a. Please record our objection to the Notice of Additional Assessment for the Year of Assessment 2017 dated 6/6/2018 on the basis that it is excessive.

In the above example, the CIT is unable to ascertain the specific aspect of the assessment that is in dispute.

b. Please record our objection to the Notice of Additional Assessment for the Year of Assessment 2017 dated 6/6/2018 on the basis that the legal fee of $2,000 has not been allowed.

In the above example, the taxpayer did not provide reasons to support the deductibility of the legal fee.

c. Please record our objection to the Notice of Additional Assessment for Year of Assessment 2017 dated 6/6/2018 on the basis that the gain on sale of property is capital in nature.

In the above example, the taxpayer did not provide details to substantiate that the gain on sale of property is capital in nature. In order for the CIT to determine whether the gain is taxable or otherwise, the taxpayer has to provide the reasons for treating the gain as capital in nature and submit information listed in Annex B.

4.5.3 Examples of valid objections are as follows:

a. Please record our objection to the Notice of Additional Assessment for the Year of Assessment 2017 dated 6/6/2018 on the basis that the legal fee of $2,000 has not been allowed. The legal fee was paid for drafting a sales contract and therefore incurred in the production of trading income.

b. Please record our objection to the Notice of Additional Assessment for the Year of Assessment 2017 dated 6/6/2018 on the basis that the exchange loss of $2,000 has not been allowed. The exchange loss arose from the company’s trade transactions (settlement of payment due to trade creditors) and is revenue in nature.

In the above examples, the taxpayer has provided precise grounds of objection based on the guidelines listed in paragraph 4.5.1.
4.5.4 The CIT is prepared to accept a taxpayer’s objection to an assessment on the grounds that the “assessment is excessive” only in two situations; specifically, when the CIT’s assessments were raised based on estimates due to non-submission of either the ECI or Income Tax Return. To enable the CIT to establish whether the assessment raised previously was excessive due to:

a. NonSubmission of ECI - the taxpayer must submit its revised ECI together with the Notice of Objection; or

b. NonSubmission of Income Tax Return - the taxpayer must submit its Income Tax Return and audited/certified accounts together with the Notice of Objection.

4.5.5 Where an industry-wide issue (e.g., a tax issue surfaced during IRAS’ dialogues with industry associations such as ABS, ICPAS, and REDAS) is under review by the CIT or the Ministry of Finance, a taxpayer need only refer to that specific issue in its grounds of objection. In such an instance, the CIT will consider that precise grounds of objection have been provided.

4.6 Acknowledgement of a Notice of Objection

4.6.1 If a Notice of Objection is filed via e-Services (myTax Portal), the taxpayer will receive an instant acknowledgement. On the other hand, if the taxpayer files a Notice of Objection via the Objection Form, an acknowledgement letter will be issued within 14 days from the date of receipt of the said Objection Form. Please refer to Annex C for a sample acknowledgement letter. No acknowledgement will be issued for a Notice of Objection filed via a letter. This is to encourage taxpayers to use e-Services or the Objection Form.

4.6.2 If the Notice of Objection is invalid, the CIT will inform the taxpayer and the taxpayer may file another objection provided the 2-month filing deadline has not lapsed.

4.6.3 If the filing deadline has lapsed, the assessment will be regarded as final and conclusive. The CIT may, however, extend the deadline for the taxpayer to re-file the Notice of Objection. This is only if he is satisfied that the taxpayer was prevented from making the application within the 2-month period, owing to specific circumstances such as key employees’ absence, sickness or other reasonable cause.

5 Review Stage

5.1 When a valid Notice of Objection is filed, the CIT will review the information submitted and may raise further queries. The CIT generally expects a reply from the taxpayer within 2 months from the date of the CIT’s letter. Reminders will be sent to the taxpayer if the CIT does not receive a reply after the deadline. In some instances, the CIT may arrange to meet the taxpayer on a need-to basis to expedite tax issue resolution.

5.2 Milestones for Review and Reply

5.2.1 In addition, to ensure timely closure of objections, the following milestones have been set:

a. The CIT will review a taxpayer’s objection and convey his decision in writing within 6 months from the date of receipt of the taxpayer’s last correspondence with complete information and supporting schedules. For complex cases which may require legal and/or policy research, the CIT will inform the taxpayer on the status of his review and the estimated date of completion.

b. The CIT will not be able to review an issue under objection if the taxpayer does not furnish the necessary information/reply to the CIT’s queries. As such, if the requisite information remains outstanding after 2 years from the date of receipt of the Notice of Objection, the CIT will issue a Notice of Refusal to Amend. A final reminder will be sent to the taxpayer to highlight the consequences of not furnishing a reply to the CIT’s queries before the issuance of the Notice of Refusal to Amend.

5.3 Taxpayer’s Objection is Accepted by the CIT

5.3.1 The CIT will convey his decision in writing to the taxpayer and amend the assessment to incorporate the taxpayer’s tax adjustments. The amended assessment will be regarded as final and conclusive.

5.4 Taxpayer’s Objection is Not Accepted by the CIT

5.4.1 The CIT will convey the grounds of his decision to the taxpayer in writing. In return, the taxpayer is expected to reply in writing within 3 months from the date of the CIT’s letter whether it will accept the CIT’s decision. If the taxpayer accepts the CIT’s decision\(^\text{10}\), the assessment will be regarded as final and conclusive. Otherwise, the CIT will issue a Notice of Refusal to Amend as he is unable to reach an agreement with the taxpayer.

\(^{10}\)The taxpayer may accept the CIT’s tax adjustment without prejudice to future Years of Assessment.
5.4.2 The Notice of Refusal to Amend will also be issued when:

a. the taxpayer fails to furnish a reply to the CIT’s decision as mentioned in paragraph 5.4.1; or

b. the taxpayer’s agreement to the CIT’s decision (refer to paragraph 5.4.1) is qualified i.e. the taxpayer states that it reserves the right to reopen its case in the event of a favourable decision/ ruling by the ITBR/ High Court/ Court of Appeal.

6 Litigation Stage

6.1 After the Notice of Refusal to Amend is issued, a taxpayer has the option to:

a. Accept the CIT’s decision on the item under objection. If so, the assessment will be regarded as final and conclusive; or

b. File a Notice of Appeal to the ITBR within 30 days from the date of the Notice of Refusal to Amend as stipulated in Section 79(1) of the Income Tax Act.

6.2 The ITBR’s decision is final where no question of law\(^{11}\) is involved. A taxpayer or the CIT may appeal to the High Court against the ITBR’s decision only if the issue involves a question of law or a question of mixed law and fact and the disputed tax exceeds $200\(^{12}\). Thereafter, the taxpayer or the CIT may appeal to the Court of Appeal against a decision of the High Court.

7 Finalisation Stage

7.1 Pursuant to Section 84 of the Income Tax Act, an assessment shall be final and conclusive in the following scenarios:

a. The assessment has been made and agreed by the taxpayer;

b. No valid Notice of Objection has been filed within the statutory time limit or such extension of time allowed;

c. No Notice of Appeal has been filed with the ITBR or High Court, as the case may be, within the statutory time limit; or \(^{11}\) This means an interpretation of the law.

\(^{12}\) Section 81(2) of the Income Tax Act
d. An assessment has been determined on appeal (i.e. based on decision/ruling by ITBR/High Court/Court of Appeal).

8 Effective Date

The Objection and Appeal process as elaborated in this guide is applicable with effect from 1 January 2014.

9 Frequently Asked Questions

(i) Can a taxpayer object to a particular tax treatment by the CIT if it had accepted the same tax treatment in the past Year of Assessment?

The taxpayer is allowed to object to a particular tax treatment by CIT even if it had accepted the same tax treatment in the past Year of Assessment. The acceptance of the CIT’s tax treatment is on a per Year of Assessment basis.

(ii) Can a Notice of Objection be filed via a letter instead of the prescribed Objection Form or e-Objection?

Yes, CIT will accept a Notice of Objection filed via a letter. However, the taxpayer will not receive an acknowledgement on the validity or receipt of its objection. Please refer to paragraph 4.4.3 for more details.

Dear Sir/Madam

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF NOTICE OF OBJECTION
ABCD COMPANY
YEAR OF ASSESSMENT 2017

This letter is to acknowledge that we have received your Notice of Objection dated 20 January 2018.

The Notice of Objection has been accepted as a valid objection based on the company’s declaration in Section E of the Objection Form. In the event that the company’s declaration is incorrect, the Comptroller of Income Tax has the right to regard the Notice of Objection as invalid.

We are currently reviewing the tax issues in the Notice of Objection and will inform you of the outcome of our review in due course.

Yours faithfully

JOHN TAN
SENIOR TAX OFFICER
CORPORATE TAX DIVISION for
COMPTROLLER OF INCOME TAX
