FAQ

Revise Duplicate Relief Claim

Q1 Why is there a review on the personal tax reliefs claimed?

A1 We conduct regular reviews of income tax assessments to verify the eligibility of tax reliefs claimed and allowed in the tax assessments.

Q2 What is the “Revise Duplicate Relief Claim” digital service?

A2 This digital service is for you to e-submit your “Revise Duplicate Relief Claim” reply. This is a convenient and secure communication channel to submit your reply online. You will receive an acknowledgement upon successful transmission.

You will need to reply via the digital service if:

1. There is more than one person claiming the relief on the same dependant. For example, you and your sister are claiming Grandparent Caregiver Relief (GCR) on your mother. As GCR cannot be shared, only you or your sister can claim the maximum relief of $3,000 provided you have met the other qualifying conditions; or
2. The total amount claimed by all claimants exceeds the maximum allowable relief amount. For example, you and your spouse are each claiming Qualifying Child Relief (QCR) of $4,000 for your child. As the maximum QCR per child is $4,000, you and your spouse must apportion the amount between the two of you; or
3. The dependant is the subject of claim for more than one relief. For example, your father is claiming Spouse Relief on your mother and you are claiming Parent Relief on her too. With the exception of GCR, a dependant cannot be the subject of claim for more than one relief.

When replying via the digital service, please ensure that:

1. You have satisfied all the qualifying conditions for claiming the relief (you can use the Personal Reliefs Eligibility Tool to check your relief eligibility).
2. All the original claimants must review and agree on the apportionment to make up the 100% for reliefs that can be shared.
3. You reply within 21 days from the date of our letter.
