Where the EOIR Article in Singapore's tax treaty provides for EOIR that is "necessary" for carrying out the provisions of the tax treaty, Singapore interprets "necessary" in a manner that will allow for EOIR that is in line with the term "foreseeably relevant" as provided in the Standard. In addition, Singapore takes the interpretation that EOIR will be in respect of all persons and will not be restricted by Article 1 (Persons Covered) of the OECD MTC even if the EOI Article in Singapore's tax treaty does not explicitly provide that EOI is not restricted by Article 1.
